espectively [illegible] ratios, or the provision of schooling facilities in classes I-V, VI-VIII and IX-XI, were available for 78, 34 and 19 respectively.

3. The total number of school teachers was 21.36 lakhs; the percentage of women teachers was 22.9 and of trained teachers 75.9.

4. The extent of coverage* of Scheduled Castes in Classes I-V was 79.6; in classes VI-VIII was 61.0 and in classes IX-X/XI was 57.1 in 1964-65. In the case of Scheduled Tribes, the corresponding figures in classes I-V, Classes VI-VIII and IX-X/XI were 69.1, 39.9 and 30.9 respectively.

* The extent of coverage is defined as:

$$\frac{\text{Percentage of enrolment of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes to total enrolment of all students}}{\text{Percentage population of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes to total population}}$$

If a fair deal had been given to the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes, the ratio of percentage of enrolment to the percentage of population, this index should be equal to 100. If this index is greater than 100, it implies that the educational advance of the Scheduled Castes is better than the average and there are some social groups whose condition may be even worse than that of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. If this index is less than 100, it may be concluded that the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes have still some leeway to make.

5. The total budget of all the States was Rs. 3355 crores; the budget for education was Rs. 764 crores, which formed 22.8 % of the total budget provision. Of Rs.764 crores, budgeted for education, the budget provided by the State Education Departments was Rs. 697 crores and by the, Departments, other than Education, was Rs.67 crores. Of Rs 697 crores budgeted by the State Education Departments, 42.5 per cent was on primary schools, 30 per cent on secondary schools, 7.8 per cent on Universities, Arts and Science Colleges, 3.9 per cent on Technical education, 0.9 per cent on Direction, 1.6 per cent on Inspection and 11.3 per cent on other institutions such as (a) professional and special schools, excluding engineering and Technology (2.5 per cent), (b) Professional Colleges excluding engineering and technology (0.5 per cent); (c) Scholarships (1.1 per cent) and other items (7.2 per cent).

6. The position, as it obtained in various States and Union Territories, is indicated in the enclosed publication. It is hoped that this publication will be of interest.
